The solution is Purdue eProNet—the premier online recruiting service for experienced professionals. eProNet excels at connecting exceptional individuals with exceptional opportunities. We can help you find the best candidates quickly and easily.

A Gold Mine of Candidates

Having exclusive agreements with the alumni organizations at some of the world's most respected universities, eProNet has built an extensive, proprietary database of top-tier, experienced professionals. Thousands of new professionals continue to join the eProNet database every month. These eProNet members are:

- highly accomplished, with 5 to 20 years of experience in engineering, science, technology, marketing, sales, business development and finance;
- very successful, holding mid to senior level positions from senior contributor to CEO;
- well-educated, with 70% holding advanced degrees; and
- rarely found on other online recruiting sites.

These highly sought-after professionals join eProNet—and usually nowhere else—because of their strong ties to their university, their trust in eProNet's secure system of confidentiality, and their assurance that eProNet will offer them outstanding career opportunities throughout their lives. No other service compares.
